Student Academic Success Programs offers many different opportunities for students to maximize their learning effectiveness. Students may register for HDEV 1210: Reading and Learning Strategies, a for-credit 2 hour class devoted to developing students' reading rate, comprehension, and learning strategies. The LEC and ACE provide free drop-in workshops to allow students to improve their study skills. Tutoring and review sessions are provided by SMU undergraduates for most first- and second-year courses. For students who want help with a problem in studying a particular text or preparing for a test, Learning Specialists offer individual appointments. Appointments are available in person or virtually.

Writing Center

202 Loyd Center

<https://www.smu.edu/WritingCenter>Director: Lydia Allen

Ph. (214) 768-3648

The Writing Center, staffed by English department faculty, provides students with assistance in the process of developing and drafting papers for SMU courses. The Writing Center faculty will not edit or proofread work, but they will answer any specific questions the student may have about their draft. Appointments are necessary in order to reserve a 30-45 minute tutorial and can be made through Canvas. Appointments are available in person or virtually. Drop-in lab assistance is also available.

Disability Accommodations & Success Strategies (DASS)<https://www.smu.edu/dass>

202 Loyd Center

Ph. (214) 768-1470

Director: Alexa TaylorDisability Accommodations Coordinators:

Michelle Bufkin

Robin Corbett

Jeanna Turay

Learning Disabilities Specialist: David TylickiAdministrative Coordinator: Candy Brown

DASS is the primary contact for all SMU students with disabilities. This office assists students with disabilities to effectively utilize resources they may need and helps them work with professors and staff in obtaining appropriate and reasonable accommodations. Appointments are available in person or virtually.

First Generation Initiative (FGI)<https://www.smu.edu/FirstGen/>

202 Loyd Center

Director: Chris Meyers

Ph: (214) 768-3648

Recognizing that everyone comes to college with different educational experiences, FGI sponsors academic programs focused on those who identify as first-generation college students, or seek assistance in fully utilizing campus resources, be they academic, financial, or social. FGI works closely and collaboratively with the student organization, First-Generation Association (FGA).
